

CHENNAI CHAPTER

- The Olcott Memorial School in Besantnagar, Chennai is a 110 year old Tamil medium school, run by the Theological Society. Here, the focus is to build communication and team building skills of the students
- At Thiruvika School, Shenoy Nagar, we engage with children by helping them learn and enhance their creativity
- Along with Sai Samithi, volunteers assist visually challenged college students with their assignments and by acting as scribes for their exams
- Volunteers reach out to start up orphanages to help them sustain their program which is done along with the community

